

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Academic Year 2025-2026

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE ASSISTANCE "Shugaku-enjo"

You need to apply for "Shugaku-enjo"
every year!

School attendance assistance "Shugaku-enjo" is a system that assists those who have difficulties paying for school lunches, school supplies, and other expenses necessary for school life due to financial reasons. If you would like to receive a scholarship, please apply.

Eligible Households

You must be a resident of Kurume City (*), a parent or guardian of a child attending a national or public elementary and/or junior high school, and a household that falls under any of the following (private schools are not eligible).

※Those who are receiving public assistance cannot apply.

※Some of the expenses will be paid even if you reside outside of Kurume as long as your child attends schools described within the city.

- (1) Public assistance has been suspended or abolished (abolished after April 1, 2024)
- (2) Receiving full child support allowance
- (3) All members of the household are exempt from paying all national pension insurance premiums
- (4) All household members are exempted from Municipal Residents Tax
- (5) The living condition deteriorated rapidly due to special circumstances such as the death of a guardian, separation, or unemployment
- (6) Although (1)-(5) do not apply, the income of all household members is low, and life is very difficult
